charging him or her with (brief description)

On April 11, 2023, Border Patrol Agents performed an immigration vehicle stop on a 2006 Saturn Ion driven by the defendant Luis Mendoza-Rodriguez near Asherton, TX. After Agents activated their emergency equipment, the defendant failed to yield to the Agents and accelerated rapidly to approximately 90mph. After a 4.5 mile pursuit, the defendant and several other individuals were observed fleeing from the vehicle however, the vehicle was still in motion and was heading into traffic. Agents were able to stop the vehicle and were able to locate the defendant hiding in the brush nearby. The defendant provided a sworn statement indicating he was hired and was going to be paid by an unknown person to pick up fifteen people. He stated once he arrived at the pick up location only three people got in the car and indicated he knew the people he had picked up were illegally present in the United States.
